

I like to invite you to attend our free community outreach resource, especially for the needy. You must call to register as soon as possible before we get full & you must provide acceptable forms of identification to verify information on the registration form at the event & no copy is necessary. Need volunteers, educators, speakers, singers & dancers. Free vendor spaces are available up to five. Also, we are a local agency for Marines Toys For Tots; contact us during September to November 2018 to sign up for it. Just call the number below & ask for Belinda Mazyck to register, volunteer, participate and for more information. No smoking, drinking, or intoxication on these premises. There is 24 hours video surveillance, and we usually have a real police officer as our security to feel safe.
